AT the Court at St. James's, the 15th Day of June, 1763.

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

HIS Majeſty in Council was this Day pleaſed to order, that the Parliament which ſtands prorogued to Thurſday the Twenty-third of this Inſtant June, ſhould be further prorogued to Tueſday the Sixth Day of September next.

His Majeſty having been pleaſed to appoint the Right Honourable James Bridges, Eſq; commonly called Marqueſs of Carnarvon, to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Southampton, and of the Town of Southampton and County of the ſame, he this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, inſtead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

St James's, June 15.

This Day the following Addreſs was read and preſented to His Majeſty by Doctor King, accompanied by a Committee from the Body of Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter; introduced by the Earl of Halifax.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty's ever loyal and faithful Subjects the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Reſtoration of Peace to your own Dominions, and to the World in general: An Event truly intereſting to all who are influenced by Sentiments of Humanity, and peculiarly pleaſing to the Miniſters of the Goſpel of Peace.

The unparalleled Succeſs and Glory, which crowned your Majeſty's Arms, whilſt they excited our Gratitude to the Almighty, could not ſuppreſs our Concern for the numberleſs Calamities and Diſorders inſeparable from War. As theſe are happily brought to a Period, we can now indulge the delightful Expectation, That the Advancement of Piety and Virtue, of Civil and Religious Liberty, and of thoſe Arts, which improve and embelliſh human Life, will be the Reſult of Publick Tranquillity, and the juſt Praiſe of your Majeſty's Reign.

The large Acceſſions, made to your Majeſty's Empire in America, not only promiſe an Increaſe of Commerce, with its Attendants, Wealth and Power, but likewiſe open a Way for diffuſing Freedom and Science, Political Order and Chriſtian Knowledge, through thoſe extenſive Regions, which are now ſunk in Superſtition and Barbariſm, and for imparting, even to the moſt uncultivated of our Species, the Happineſs of Britons.

GREAT SIR,

The Proteſtant Diſſenters have been ever ſtrongly attached to thoſe excellent Princes your Royal Progenitors; having always conſidered the Revolution as the glorious Æra of Liberty in theſe Kingdoms, and the Succeſſion in your auguſt Houſe, as, under God, its firmeſt Eſtabliſhment: And the Goodneſs of your Majeſty's Heart, your high Senſe of Domeſconcur to heighten our Zeal for the Dignity of your Crown, and the Proſperity of your Government. It ſhall be our conſtant Care to approve our Loyalty and Fidelity to your Majeſty, by promoting Concord, and by recommending to thoſe, with whom we are connected, ſuch Principles, as are calculated to render them, at once, good Subjects, and good Men.

We have only to add, our fervent Supplications to the Moſt High, that your Majeſty may reign long, the Father of a free, and the Delight of an happy People; and that the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms may deſcend, in your Illuſtrious Line, to the lateſt Generations.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return this moſt gracious Anſwer:

I THANK you for this affectionate and dutiful Addreſs. You judge rightly of my Deſire and Intention to improve the Bleſſings of the Peace, which God has granted us, to the univerſal Benefit of My Subjects, and to the Advancement of Religion and Virtue. Your Reſolution to inculcate the Principles of Piety and Loyalty, is very agreeable to Me; and you may rely on My Protection, and My Care, to maintain the Toleration.

They were all moſt graciouſly received; and had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cambridge, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Royſton, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cambridge.

WE the Lord Lieutenant, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cambridge, beg Leave, with Hearts full of Gratitude, to congratulate your Majeſty, and our Fellow-Subjects, on the Succeſs of your Negociations, in relieving your People from the encreaſing Burthens and diſagreeable Uncertainties of a War, carried on againſt the moſt powerful and numerous Enemies with whom this Nation had ever contended, and in reſtoring Peace to your Kingdoms, on Terms by which very conſiderable Advantages have been ſecured to the Commercial and Territorial Intereſts of this Country.

We have juſt Grounds to flatter ourſelves, that the Peace, now completed, will be of long Duration; for though we find, on looking back for near a Century paſt, that the moſt ſolemn Treaties, concluded with our Enemies, have been broke through or evaded, yet ſuch has been the Firmneſs and Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils during this late War, ſuch the Harmony, Spirited Conduct and Bravery of your Commanders, (from one of whom this County claims no ſmall Share of Honour) and ſuch the unparalleled Valour of your Troops under all the Diſadvantages of Numbers or Climates, as muſt of Conſequence render this Nation long revered in all Parts of the known World, and make any of her Neighbours cautious how they again invade the Rights of ſo brave and free a People, united in Duty and Affection to your Majeſty, from a juſt Senſe of the Happineſs they have enjoyed, and hope long to enjoy, of being governed by your Majeſty, and under a Race of Princes of your Auguſt Houſe, to future Ages, placing, as your Majeſty does, their own Glory, in promoting the Welfare and Proſperity of all their Subjects, and in preſerving the Liberty and Independency of Europe.

Dated the Eleventh Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-three.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Reading, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Reading in the County of Berks

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of Reading, beg leave moſt humbly to congratulate your Majeſty on the Termination of a juſt tho' bloody and expenſive War, and on the happy Re-eſtabliſhment of Peace and the publick Tranquility.

For this ſo deſirable and ineſtimable Event, we intreat your Majeſty graciouſly to accept our moſt dutiful and ſincere Acknowledgments; and as the Proſperity and Happineſs of your People is the ſole Object of your Royal Endeavours, we beg leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall moſt ardently beſeech the Almighty, that your Majeſty may live, long live, and reign in the Hearts and Affections of all your Subjects, United and ever Zealous of your Majeſty's Honour and Dignity, and ſtudious gratefully to cultivate and improve the invaluable Fruits and Bleſſings of Peace.

Given under our Common Seal, the Eleventh day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty three.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of the Borough and Corporation of Liverpoole, having been tranſmitted by Sir Ellis Cunliffe, Bart. one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of the Borough and Corporation of Liverpoole, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of the Borough and Corporation of Liverpoole, in Council aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our unfeigned Acknowledgments of the conſtant and effectual Support granted to our Commerce, by Means whereof it has flouriſhed in an extraordinary Degree during the Courſe of a dangerous and extenſive War.

With equal Gratitude we confeſs your Majeſty's paternal Care, that, amidſt the Glories of a Succeſsful War, your Majeſty forgot not to reſtore the Repoſe of your Kingdoms; and, by a Treaty marked with great Moderation, have ſecured to your Subjects the ſolid Bleſſings of Peace.

Permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, our moſt earneſt Endeavours ſhall not be wanting, induſtriouſly to improve the Advantages obtained; and as we are glad, on all Occaſions, to declare our Zeal and Attachment to your Sacred Perſon and Government, ſo ſhall we always be ready to expreſs our Diſapprobation and Abhorrence of the leaſt Spirit of Diſcord or Faction, which may tend to alienate the Affections of your Majeſty's Subjects from the beſt of Kings: And we offer up our ardent Prayers, that your Majeſty may long and happily reign over a free and grateful People; and that there may never be wanting a Prince of your Royal Houſe to ſucceed to the Crown of theſe Realms.

Paſſed under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough and Corporation of Liverpoole, the Seventh Day of June, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-three.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Warwick, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of your ancient Borough of Warwick, do, with Joy equal if poſſible to our Duty, on ſuch an Illuſtrious Occaſion, expreſs our grateful Acknowledgments to your Majeſty, for putting an End to an expenſive and bloody, though neceſſary War, carried on with Vigour, Reſolution and Unanimity, by an Honourable and Advantageous Peace.

We further beg Leave to offer our Aſſurances of an inviolable Fidelity and Affection to your Sacred Perſon and Government, and ſhall always be ready to give the moſt zealous Proofs of Duty and Gratitude that can be ſhewn by the moſt dutiful Subjects to the beſt of Princes.

Given under our Common Seal of the Borough of Warwick, this Tenth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord, One Thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-three.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council aſſembled, with the Utmoſt Gratitude, remembring that Security with which, through your Majeſty's Protection, we were ſo peculiarly bleſſed during the Courſe of a long and perilous War, do now, at its Concluſion, with all Humility congratulate your Majeſty upon that unſpeakable Pleaſure, which you generouſly feel in ſeeing its Horrors and Calamities every where ceaſe, and in being the happy Inſtrument, under Heaven, for the accompliſhing ſo great a Bleſſing.

Having the firmeſt Reliance upon your Majeſty's Paternal Care and gracious Attention to the General Good, we dutifully repoſe ourſelves in an entire Aſſurance, that the Terms upon which your Majeſty hath put an End to this War, are honourable for your Crown, and productive of laſting Advantages to your People. We view thoſe unparalleled Succeſſes which have laid the Foundations for Peace, as the ſure Pledges of its Continuance: And conſidering the undiſturbed Enjoyment of our Religion, our Laws, and our Liberties, under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, as a State of the moſt conſummate human Felicity, deem Conqueſt only valuable as a Mean to ſecure it.

Permit us, moſt Gracious Sovereign, to take this and every Occaſion of renewing to your Majeſty the ſincere Profeſſion of our warmeſt Affections and unalterable Loyalty: And, when your Royal Endeavours, ſo glorious and effectual in vindicating your Dominions from foreign Injuries, ſhall by your Majeſty as happily be apply'd to the eſtabliſhing domeſtick Tranquility and the Improvement of the various Bleſſings of Peace, and your Kingdoms ſhall flouriſh under your Majeſty's benign Influence, may the Demeanour of your faithful Subjects of this City be ſuch in your Sight as to merit their Share in the general Proſperity.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed the Common Seal of the ſaid City to be hereunto affixed, this ſeventh Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-three.

The Three following Addreſſes from the Counties of Berwick, Linlithgow and Renfrew, have been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable ing: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Berwick.—Met at Greenlaw, the 7th Day of June, 1763.

Moſt gracious Sovertign,

WE your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Berwick, with Hearts full of Gratitude to Heaven for all the Succeſſes, with which it has been pleaſed to bleſs your Majeſty's Arms; full of Duty and Affection to your Royal Perſon, by whoſe Hand, Providence has guided the War to ſo glorious an Iſſue; beg Leave to Congratulate your Majeſty on the Immortal Honour you have acquired, not more by your Conqueſts, and the Reputation of your Arms, than by the Peace you have made; for, when your Foes were humbled in every Quarter of the Globe, when every new Conqueſt rendered another more eaſy; while Victory was fixed to the Britiſh Standard; when your Majeſty's early Time of Life might have excuſed the moſt violent Thirſt of Glory, yet touched with Paternal Love for your People, and Compaſſion for the Miſeries of your Enemies, you ſheathed the Victorious Sword, on Terms ſo Glorious and Advantageous, as will reflect laſting Honour on your Majeſty, and on your Councils.

Your Majeſty has given us a double Security for the Stability of this Peace, by leaving in the Minds of your Enemies, and of Mankind, the Awe of your Arms, and the deepeſt Impreſſion of your Virtue, Juſtice, and Moderation.

It is with the utmoſt Abhorrence we ſee licentious Men, under the ſpecious Maſk of Liberty, endeavouring to inſult the Throne, and to diſturb that Concord, ſo peculiarly neceſſary to procure to us, and to our Poſterity, the great Advantages acquired by the Peace.

That your Majeſty may long reign over a grateful and united People, is the ardent Prayer of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects.

Signed in Preſence, and by Appointment of the Meeting, Home.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the County of Linlithgow.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and others of the County of Linlithgow, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the happy Succeſs of your paternal Care of your Subjects, in concluding the late, long, juſt, and ſucceſsful War, by a Peace, which, in Spite of all Detraction, we are fully ſatisfied is both Honourable and Advantageous; and therefore we flatter ourſelves well, by the Bleſſing of the Almighty, prove a national Benefit, not only to the Preſent, but to future Generations.

Permit us alſo to declare our Abhorrence of every licentious Attempt to diſtract and miſlead the Minds of your faithful Subjects, from that Duty and Gratitude they owe to your Majeſty's wiſe and mild Government, for the long Continuance of which, as the ſureſt Foundation of our own Happineſs, we ſhall ever moſt ſincerely pray.

Charles Hope Weir, Præſes.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects, the Freeholders, Juſtices of Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply in the County of Renfrew, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the happy Re-eſtabliſhment of a general Peace.

To enumerate the Succeſſes of the War, or the Advantages of the Peace, would extend this Addreſs beyond its proper Limits. The preſent Age heſitates, ſonable Termination of it: Your grateful Subjects render to their Sovereign the Praiſe of both; and rejoice in the Virtues of their Prince, who in early Youth preferred the ſolid Welfare of his People to the dazzleing Glories of Victores and Conqueſt. But though Peace has been preferred to War, neither Intereſt nor Honour have been ſacrificed to Repoſe. The Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils has adorned and enriched Peace with the Spoils of War, and rendered even Tranquillity triumphant. The immenſe Increaſe of Territory and Power ariſing from theſe Conqueſts, which your Majeſty has retained, makes this Country more formidable than ever to its Enemies; whilſt the ſacred Faith preſerved with your Allies, the Defence of Portugal, ſo magnanimouſly undertaken and accompliſhed, ſecure to Britain the laſting Confidence and Eſteem of every Nation.

Whilſt we thus exult with Joy and Congratulations upon thoſe great and ſplendid Events, permit us, Great Sir, to teſtify our moſt feeling Senſe of that anxious Care, and tender Concern, with which you have been pleaſed to mention the Burdens and Neceſſities of your People. Your Majeſty's generous Actions, as well as your Words, give us the moſt pleaſing Hope, that your wiſe Regulations, your beneficent and prudent Oeconomy, in Times of Quiet, will alleviate thoſe heavy Burdens under which your Kingdoms labour, will repair the Breaches which War has made, and will extend that envied Commerce which enabled Britain to ſtretch its irreſiſtable Arms over the World.

We moſt ſincerely rejoice in the happy Proſpect of a Reign that promiſes, with every preſent Bleſſing, Duration and Continuance to our Felicity, from thoſe many Years of Life, which we may reaſonably hope, and moſt ardently pray, that Heaven may grant to our revered and beloved Sovereign.

Signed at the Defire, and in the Preſence of the Meeting, by Sir James Maxwell, Bart. their Preſes.

Renfrew, May 30, 1763. James Maxwell.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Chepping Wycombe in the County of Bucks, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Chepping Wycombe in the County of Bucks.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Chepping Wycombe, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with our moſt ſincere and humble Congratulations on the happy Return of Peace, by the Concluſion of a glorious and ſucceſsful War.

We cannot ſufficiently applaud the Wiſdom and Steadineſs of thoſe Counſels which, under the Divine Favour, enabled your Majeſty to defeat the powerful and inveterate Deſigns of your Enemies, and thereby reduce them to the Neceſſity of accepting Terms of Peace, moſt honourable and advantageous to your Majeſty and your People, and humiliating to your Enemies.

May your Majeſty's future Reign be as famous for the Cultivation of the Arts of Peace, as the firſt Years of it have been ſignalized by warlike Atchievements; and may Loyalty and Reſpect to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Dignity, be the juſt Tribute of a grateful People, for the many ineſtimable Bleſſings which we enjoy under your mild and auſpicious Government.

Whereas it frequently happens, that the Widows and Repreſentatives of Sailors belonging to His Majeſty's Service who die at Sea or in Foreign Parts, ignorantly apply to the Eccleſiaſtical Court of the Juriſdiction neareſt to the Place where ſuch Widows and Repreſentatives happen to live, in order to obtain Adminiſtration or Probats of the Wills of ſuch Seamen.

And whereas no Wages, due to Seamen as aforeſaid, can legally or ſafely be paid, as the Law now ſtands, on producing any Adminiſtrations not granted by, or Wills which have not been proved in, the Prerogative Court of the See of Canterbury, held at Doctors Commons, London: In order therefore to ſave unneceſſary Trouble and Expence to ſuch Widows or Repreſentatives, Notice is hereby given, that they ſhould not apply for any Wages due to the Deceaſed, until they have taken out Letters of Adminiſtration in the ſaid Prerogative Court, and in no other whatever.

And whereas the Widows and next of Kin of Seamen are ſometimes deterred from proving their Wills and Adminiſtring, by a Notion, that the Fees and Expences attending the ſame are ſo large, that it is not worth their While to entitle themſelves to receive Wages which amount only to ſmall Sums.

Notice is hereby given, that the Charge at Doctors Commons of taking Adminiſtrations or proving the Wills, in common Form, of Seamen dying in the Pay of His Majeſty's Navy, by the Widows, Children, Fathers, Mothers, Brothers or Siſters of ſuch Seamen where the Effects of the Deceaſed are under the ſeveral Rates of Five Pounds, Twenty Pounds, Forty Pounds, and Sixty Pounds, by Commiſſions or otherwiſe, amount to no more than the reſpective Sums particularly ſpecified in the Table or Schedule hereunder mentioned, Stamps Office and Proctors Fees all included.

As the preserving the Credit of these invaluable Medicines, and the establishing the Authenticity of the Receipts published by Mr. Page, is of the utmost Consequence to Society, and, as that Gentleman has intrusted the Sale of both to our Care, and has nobly given the Profits arising therefrom, under certain Restrictions, to the Magdalen and the Asylum for Female Orphans, we think it absolutely necessary for the present, to confine the Sale, as well of the Medicines as of the Receipts, to the above-mentioned Places. The Medicines are sealed with the Letters F. D. and the Pamphlets will be signed either with the Name of Robert Dingley or John Fielding, which it is to be hoped will give due Satisfaction to the Public, and prevent all Attempts to impose on Mankind, in so essential an Article as Health.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, the Small Pox, Measles, Pleurisies, Quinsies, acute Rheumatisms, Colds, and all inflammatory Disorders, as well as for those which are called Nervous, Hypochondriac, and Hysteric, Price 2 s. 6 d. the Paper; with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

 Experience having taught, that this Medicine, which is a safe and certain Cure for the above Disorders, is better prepared for Sea Service (and more convenient) in Bottles, than made up as usual in Marble Paper, the Commissioners, who have the Direction of the Medicines employed in the Navy, have ordered this Powder to be so preserved for the Use of all His Majesty's Ships of War; and a large Quantity is also made up in the same Manner for Merchants and Captains of Trading Ships, as well as for those who are any way concerned in Voyages, or the Sea Service.

This Medicine is sold only by J. Newbery, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, and by those who are empowered by him to sell it in the several Towns of Great Britain, Ireland, and the Colonies.

Of whom may be had,

Dr. James's Mild Powder for the Disorders above-mentioned, which is prepared from the same Materials as the other Powder, but so contrived as to have little or no sensible Operation, and upon that Account is the more proper for Women under certain Circumstances, Infants, and those whose Constitutions are extremely delicate. And it is more than probable that this Powder, by taking off the Acrimony, will prevent Pitting in the Small Pox, Price 2 s. 6 d.
